CODE OF CONDUCT

Introduction

1. In order to provide electronic communications services to its subscribers, Border Internet (Pty) Ltd (Border Internet), operates in terms of IECNS and IECS licences issued by the Independent Communications Authority of South Africa (ICASA).
2. ICASA requires that all licence-holders comply with, inter alia, the:
 - 2.1. ICASA Code of Conduct Regulations 2008, which sets out minimum standards of conduct when providing services to subscribers or dealing with potential subscribers; and
 - 2.2. ICASA End-User and Subscriber Service Charter Regulations 2016, which sets out minimum quality of service standards applicable to services provided to subscribers and potential subscribers.
3. Border Internet has developed a Code of Conduct in line with these Regulations and will strive to follow this in its interactions with its Consumers. This Code of Conduct applies to Border Internet and all of its subsidiaries which operate in terms of its licences.
4. The ICASA Code of Conduct Regulations 2008 are available here.
5. The ICASA End-user and Subscriber Service Charter Regulations are available here.

7. “Business Hours” means 08h00–17h00 on Business Days.
8. “Customer” means a subscriber or potential subscriber of Border Internet.

Key Commitments

9. Border Internet makes the following key commitments and will endeavour to:
 - 9.1. Act in a fair, reasonable and responsible manner in all dealings with Customers;
 - 9.2. Ensure that all its services and products meet the specifications as contained in Border Internet’ licences and all the relevant laws and regulations;
 - 9.3. Not unfairly discriminate against or between Customers on the basis of race, gender, sex, age, religion, belief, disability, ethnic background or sexual orientation;
 - 9.4. Display utmost courtesy and care when dealing with Customers;
 - 9.5. Provide Customers with information regarding services and pricing;
 - 9.6. Where requested to do, so provide Customers with guidance with regard to their service needs; and
 - 9.7. Keep the personal information of Customers confidential unless Border Internet is:
 - In possession of written authorisation from the Customer to do so;
 - Required to release such information for the purpose of briefing Border Internet’ auditors, professional advisors or an accredited debt collection agency; and/or
 - Otherwise authorised or required by any law or an order of Court;
10. Customers have the right to refer Complaints to ICASA as more fully set out in the Complaints Procedure.

Consumer Rights

11. The ICASA Code of Conduct Regulations 2008 stipulate the following (non-exhaustive) list of consumer rights held by Consumers:
 - 11.1. A right to be provided with the required service without unfair discrimination;
 - 11.2. A right to choose the service provider of the Customer’s choice;
 - 11.3. A right to receive information in the Customer’s preferred language (Border Internet will do its best to meet this request where reasonable);
 - 11.4. A right to access and question records held by Border Internet which relate to the Customer’s relationship with Border Internet;

- 11.5. A right to the protection of the Customer's personal data, including the right not to have personal data sold to third parties without the Customer's express permission;
- 11.6. A right to port a number in terms of applicable regulations;
- 11.7. A right to lodge a complaint; and
- 11.8. A right to redress.
